Gen X Radio Suffolk will regularly report on events and situations that occur in Suffolk and beyond.

On occasion the stories we cover may well be deemed by the public as 'controversial'.

Our reporting will be fair, without bias, stance or agenda and accommodating of significant parties to the story where appropriate.

Our questioning regarding certain stories will be challenging but will be balanced and we will seek to ascertain all salient angles of a story.

Gen X Radio may on occasion offer an opinion by way of stimulating a debate, but will ensure balance on those occasions.

Gen X Radio Suffolk WILL NOT differentiate between any protected characteristic such as race, age, gender, disability or sexuality.

Gen X Radio Suffolk exists to support the county and in that regard will display a positive stance towards our county.
